

Builder 3.0.1 released

The first patch release for builder 3.0 is out, it contains fixes for exceptions thrown by webui menulinks (menu being displayed as markup), stores session data differently (white pages) and numerous other tweaks that inevitably weren't picked up during beta testing.

You can download this release from the Atlassian Marketplace (click on the previous versions link to see all files) or install from the plugin repository.